NEWS AND VIEWS FROM THE DORMY HOUSE HOTEL

ISSUE 37

All the fun of the Thirtieth!

The sun shone and the champagne flowed as 300 invited guests gathered to celebrate a significant milestone in the history of the Dormy House Hotel – thirty years under the private ownership of Jørgen Philip-Sørensen.

This special Sunday lunchtime occasion was the biggest event ever held at the Hotel, with a VIP guest list made up of friends of the Dormy – regular visitors, valued suppliers, hospitality industry leaders and former members of staff amongst them.

Fairground attractions, including a giant ferris wheel, added to the celebratory atmosphere and the verdict was unanimous – what a fabulous day!

'JPS' delighted the crowd with a speech from the heart, and afterwards planted a tree to mark the thirtieth anniversary. On behalf of the staff, Hotel manager David Field presented him with a fine bottle of 30 year old malt whisky.

It was a day that in every respect reflected the Hotel itself – warm, relaxed, stylish and above all supremely hospitable.
