

Cancellations 101

Like us, many of you are waiting with baited breath to see what changes Boris will announce next, which is why we pride ourselves on having a super flexible booking policy at all three of our hotels, so you can book your stay with confidence.

Flexible Rate

Unless you pay in advance for a booking at a promotional Rate, you may cancel a reservation without charge...

The Fish up to 48 hours before your check-in.

Dormy House up to 72 hours your check-in.

Foxhill Manor up to 7 days before check-in.

Advanced Purchase Rate

With this rate, full pre-payment is required at the time of reservation. However, we all know things can change so by booking directly with us you can make one amendment to the date of your stay when you let us know in advance of your arrival.

Foxhill Manor up to 14 days before check-in.

The Fish up to 7 days before check-in.

Your new arrival date will need to be within 6-months of your original date & for the same length of stay where your chosen rate plan is available with any difference in price appearing on your final bill.
